INFORMATION

The oral proceedings of: 20.01.16

Resulted in:

The European patent is revoked because at least one ground for opposition prejudices the maintenance of the European patent (Art. 101(2) EPC)

The European patent is revoked because, account being taken of the amendments made by the patent proprietor during opposition proceedings, the patent and the invention to which it relates were found not to meet the requirements of the EPC (Art. 101(3)(b) EPC).

The opposition(s) is/are rejected (Art. 101(2) EPC).

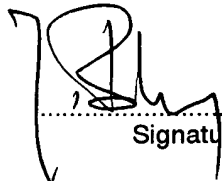

Account being taken of the amendments made by the patent proprietor during the opposition proceedings, the patent and the invention to which it relates are found to meet the requirements of European Patent Convention (Art. 101(3)(a) EPC).

Amendments filed during oral proceedings are annexed.

The proceedings were ordered to be continued in writing. The patent can be maintained in amended form, provided the amendments are filed in a form compliant with R. 49(8), 50(1), 86 EPC.
